

DIGITAL BADGES

Badges that tell the truth about what was earned.

Round teal badges show membership. Gold-and-navy shield badges show an independently assessed professional credential. A membership badge never implies credentialed competence.

Using your badge: show it only while your membership or credential is active, always with your certificate number so others can check it on the verification page. Do not change the badge or use it to suggest a higher level than you hold. See the Use of Designations and Logo policy. See sample certificates.

SPECIMEN CERTIFICATES

How GCEN certificates look.

Each certificate is issued automatically when a reviewer approves an application. It is signed by the President and the CEO, and can be checked using its number.
